To: Distribution List

Subj: HEALTH AND COMMUNITY RESOURCE FAIR

1. Situation. The Commanding General, Marine Air Ground Task Force Training Command, Marine Corps Air Ground Combat Center has directed the Assistant Chief of Staff (AC/S) G-5, Government and External Affairs Office to support the Health and Community Resource Fair on 8 October 2016.

2. Mission. To publish information and instructions for the support of the Health and community Resource Fair event.

3. Execution

a. Commander's Intent and Concept of Operations

(1) Commander's Intent. To maintain positive relations between the Combat Center and the citizens of the Morongo Basin.

(2) Concept of Operations. Contingent on operational management, support the Health and Community Resource Fair by providing personnel and equipment to support the event.

b. Subordinate Element Missions

(1) AC/S G-5, Public Affairs Office. Provide appropriate media coverage for this event.

(2) AC/S G-7, Provost Marshal Office. Provide the Mobile Command Post, an information table, Darren the DARE Lion, and support staff to participate in the fair.

(3) I Marine Expeditionary Force (I MEF) Support. Request Static Display vehicles and personnel to participate in the fair as designated by I MEF.

c. Coordinating Instructions

(1) The Coordinating Officer for this event is Ms. Emilee Tinsley at (760) 830-3738, cell (540) 395-6860, or etinsley@marstel-day.com.

(2) On 8 October 2016, Marines participating in the Health and Community Resource Fair will travel from the Combat Center to Luckie Park located at Joe Davis Drive and Utah Trail, Twentynine Palms, CA 92277 arriving at approximately 0900. Once there, the Marines will set up as directed by the event sponsor, Mr. Joe Rudden, (760) 820-9218. Once the event is completed, all supporting personnel and equipment will return to the Combat Center.

(3) The senior member of each unit will call the Command Duty Officer both when departing and returning to the base at (760) 830-7200.

(4) Timeline for 8 October 2016

0830 - Depart the Combat Center
0900 - Units and personnel arrive at Luckie Park
1000 - Health and Community Resource Fair begins
1200 - Rotating chow
1400 - Health and Community Resource Fair concludes 1405 - Units pack and return to the Combat Center
1500 - Arrive at the Combat Center, mission complete

(5) Uniforms for the Event

(a) Units supporting a Static Display during the Health and Community Resource Fair will be in the seasonal Marine Pattern (MARPAT) Marine Corps Combat Utility Uniform (MCCUU).

(b) The spirit and intent of wearing uniforms off base will strictly adhere to the Commandant of the Marine Corps' guidance. No MARPAT MCCUU will be worn in a liberty status. It is understood that the Marines driving tactical vehicles for static displays and parades will be in the seasonal MARPAT MCCUU. These Marines will stay next to their vehicles and will be briefed that they are not in a liberty status. As such, they will conduct themselves professionally, promoting the positive image of the United States Marine Corps. The senior Marine participating will be responsible for ensuring the intent of wearing the MARPAT uniform during this event is met, and will establish guidelines for stops of necessity (head calls, chow runs, etc.).

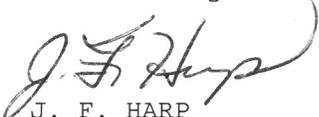

(c) I MEF will designate the senior Marine participating and he or she will be responsible for ensuring the above guidelines of wearing the seasonal MARPAT MCCUU during this event is adhered to.

4. Administration and Logistics. Directives issued by this Headquarters are published and distributed electronically. Electronic versions of Combat Center letters of instruction (LOI) can be found at <http://www.29palms.marines.mil/Staff/G1-Manpower/Adjutant-Office/Letters-of-Instruction/>.

5. Command and Signal

a. Command. This LOI is applicable to active duty, reserve, and civilian personnel participating in this event.

b. Signal. This LOI is effective the date signed.
