

Guidelines for Tour Groups Visiting the Marine Corps Air Ground Combat Center

Twentynine Palms, California

Required identification

- U.S. citizens: Valid state-issued I.D. or drivers' license (Vehicle drivers also must present current/valid vehicle registration and insurance information)
- Non-U.S. citizens: Valid passport
- I.D. information required 14 days prior to tour date

What to wear

- Jeans or long pants are required.
- Layers. Sweaters and jackets are encouraged; plan for cold mornings, warm afternoons.
- Closed-toe shoes. Boots and hiking shoes are best for walking on uneven terrain.
- Accessories. Sunglasses, hats with brims and sunscreen are recommended.

What to bring

- Water container. Hydration is key in the desert! Staff will have ice water on hand for refills.
- Your camera. Photography is allowed in most areas you will visit. Staff will alert you if your group enters an area where photography is prohibited.
- Lunch money. Cash only; no checks, credit or debit cards.

What you can expect

Your visit will include a driving tour of Mainside infrastructure and may include stops at:

- An urban warfare training range *
- Combat Simulation Center • Range Recycling
- Heritage Park • Archaeology & Paleontology Curation Center
- One of the many restaurants aboard the installation

*MCAGCC is the Marine Corps' largest live-fire base, and training ALWAYS takes priority. As such, some sites may not be available during your tour.

For more information or to inquire about scheduling a tour, call 760-830-3735

When training/staffing permit, tours are conducted on a limited basis Tuesdays through Thursdays for visitors 18 and older. Please give us 30 to 45 days' advance notice to set up your tour.

For security reasons, all tour attendees must pass a security screening at the Combat Center's main gate.

If you cannot clear security, you will not be admitted aboard the installation. There are no exceptions.

All members of the media (regardless of medium) MUST make prior coordination with the Public Affairs Officer (PAO) at 760-830-6213. Failure to do so may result in not being able to attend the tour. There are no exceptions.
