

MGySgt Clyde E. Kelly

Marine Corps Logistics Operations Group

Senior Enlisted Advisor

Clyde E. Kelly was born in Augusta, Ga. and raised in Waco, Texas. He enlisted in the Marine Corps in December 1994 and underwent recruit training at 2nd Recruit Training Battalion, Golf Company, Marine Corps Recruit Depot, San Diego, California.

In June of 1995 Private Kelly completed Basic Embarkation and Logistics Specialist School at Expeditionary Warfare Training Group Pacific (EWTGPAC), Naval Amphibious Base (NAB) Coronado, San Diego Ca. He was ordered to 2nd Battalion 7th Marines, Twentynine Palms California for duty where he served as the Embarkation Specialist.

LCpl Kelly was transferred in December of 1996 to Delta Company (REIN) 3rd Assault Amphibian Battalion, Twentynine Palms Ca. where he served as the Embarkation and Hazmat clerk.

In December 1998, Sergeant Kelly transferred to 1st Battalion 7th Marines where he assumed duties as the Embarkation NCO/Logistics Chief. Sergeant Kelly was part of numerous Unit Deployments to Okinawa Japan and was also forward deployed in support of Operation Iraqi Freedom.

In June of 2003, Staff Sergeant Kelly was assigned to Combat Service Support Detachment 21 (CSSD-21), 2nd Force Service Support Group (2nd FSSG), Marine Corps Air Station Cherry Point N. C. where he assumed duties as the Operations Chief for the Aerial Port of Embarkation and Debarcation.

In April of 2005 Staff Sergeant Kelly received orders to Recruiting School, Marine Corps Recruit Depot San Diego, California. Upon completion of Recruiter School, he was assigned to Recruiting Station Indianapolis Indiana, Recruiting Sub Station Lafayette Indiana as a Canvassing Recruiter and later as the Staff Non-Commissioned Officer In Charge of RSS Lafayette.

Upon his completion of Recruiting Duty in June 2008, Gunnery Sergeant Kelly reported to Tactical Training Exercise Control Group, Twentynine Palms, Ca., where he was assigned as a Logistics Trainer Coyote and later as the Staff Non-Commissioned Officer In Charge of the Logistics Section for Enhanced Mojave Viper.

In December 2010, Gunnery Sergeant Kelly reported to 7th Marines Regiment, Twentynine Palms California where he assumed duties as the Logistics Chief.

In March 2011, Gunnery Sergeant Kelly assumed duties as the G-4 Operations Chief awaiting his promotion to Master Sergeant in September.

In July 2014 Master Sergeant Kelly reported to Okinawa to his assignment as the Operations Chief of Combat Logistics Battalion 31 (CLB-31), 31st Marine Expeditionary Unit.

In May of 2016 Master Gunnery Sergeant Kelly (Frocked) reported to 1st Marine Logistic Group (1st MLG) where he assumed duties as the G-4 Chief. In October 2016 was officially promoted to the rank of Master Gunnery Sergeant and served as the 1st MLG G-3 Chief.

In January Of 2020 Master Gunnery Sergeant Kelly reported to Marine Corps Forces Pacific where he served as the Plans Exercise Chief and Operations Chief.

In January Of 2023 Master Gunnery Sergeant Kelly reported to Marine Corps Logistics Operations Group where he is currently serving as the Senior Enlisted Advi