Subj: COMMANDER'S CRITICAL INFORMATION REQUIREMENTS

Ref: (a) MCWP 5-10

1. The Commander's Critical Information Requirements (CCIR) for Marine Air Ground Task Force Training Command (MAGTFTC), Marine Corps Air Ground Combat Center (MCAGCC) are listed below and subordinate commanders at all levels shall ensure accurate and timely reporting of casualties and serious incidents/events, in accordance with the references.

2. CCIRs provide Commanders and leaders the important information they need to achieve the level of understanding required to accomplish the mission and take care of our Marines, Sailors, and families. While MAGTFTC, MCAGCC does not operate in a deployed environment, there is still time-sensitive information that must be reported up the chain of command. Below are my critical information requirements; information that I want to be made aware of as quickly as possible, in any given situation.

3. Report the following CCIRs in the priority listed:

a. Immediate Notification. Requires a phone call to either the Chief of Staff or the Commanding General.

(1) Death of, or caused by, a Marine, Sailor, or civilian.

(2) High profile incident or any arrest or detention of a Marine, Sailor, or civilian which could potentially generate local or national media interest of a negative nature.

(3) Use of deadly force by Provost Marshal's Office personnel or interior guard forces aboard the Combat Center, or subordinate commands.

(4) Unauthorized disclosure of Top Secret and above classified information.

(5) Terrorist attack, attempted attack, specific terrorist threat, or reported surveillance aboard, or directed at, the Combat Center or subordinate commands, or a general terrorist threat in the Southern California area.

(6) Any directed increase in the Force Protection Condition.

(7) Unplanned/emergency events which require the commitment of the Combat Center or subordinate command personnel or resources, or any request for military support to civilian authorities.

POLICY LETTER 13-18

(8) All incidents that warrant timely command attention based on the discretion and judgment of Commanders/Provost Marshal.

(9) Any unaccounted personnel. This includes exercise forces or units, tenant commands, and commands subordinate to the Combat Center.

(10) Any degradation (damage) of infrastructure or services, that significantly impacts training or functions, to include the decision to pause or continue training.

(11) Any request by a general or flag officer to speak to the Commanding General.

(12) Use of restraints or taser by Provost Marshal's Office personnel or interior guard forces aboard the Combat Center, or subordinate commands.

b. Priority Notification. Requires an email to either the Chief of Staff or the Commanding General.

(1) Class A mishap ($2M+ damages to DoD/non-DoD property; aircraft destroyed; injury and/or occupational illness resulting in death or permanent total disability).

(2) Suicide attempt by a Marine or Sailor.

(3) Reported/suspected sexual assault/harassment, hazing, or racial incident, or a confirmed Equal Employment Opportunity violation or complaint.

(4) Any directed decrease in the Force Protection Condition.

(5) Spillage or unauthorized disclosure of Secret and below classified information.

(6) Arrival of unscheduled Distinguished Visitors aboard the Combat Center or subordinate commands.

(7) Any unaccounted serialized equipment, such as vehicles, weapons, optics, night vision goggles, etc. This includes exercise forces or units, tenant commands, and commands subordinate to the Combat Center.

4. The information requirements listed above may not cover all situations, but if a significant issue that you believe warrants attention occurs, then use the "Reasonable Marine" approach and report it. Call the Command Duty Office with any questions, or to report an after-hours CCIR, at (760) 830-7200.
