

MARINE CORPS AIR GROUND COMBAT CENTER MONTHLY CRIME PREVENTION

Crime Prevention is an active program that combines public awareness & preventive measures to reduce crime.

AUGUST

The focus for this month finishes Summertime Crime! As the summer ends and school begins concentration of preparing for school begins, which can lead to various crimes or accidents.

Those crimes may seem minor but must be watched out for, such as:

Unattended Children

Activity supervise kids at stores to prevent mischievousness or shoplifting.

Child Abuse

Inspect playground equipment prior to use to prevent injuries that could be mistaken as abuse.

Traffic
Tickets

Instruct your teen drivers (and yourself) the importance of following the law when driving.

Home Burglary

Lock up your house when leaving & avoid leaving windows open with blinds/drapes not drawn.

J-Walking

Properly cross at the appropriate crosswalks.

Identify Theft

Lock up your house when leaving & avoid leaving windows open with blinds/drapes not drawn.

Overall, the Provost Marshal encourages a safe close to your summer months & remember that regardless of the safety/crime situation(s) you find yourself in, there are preventative measures! Make it safe and summertime crime free!
