MEDIA ADVISORY #16-013

December 5, 2016

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

MARINE CORPS OPERATIONAL ENERGY EXERCISE AT TWENTYNINE PALMS
MARINE CORPS AIR GROUND COMBAT CENTER TWENTYNINE PALMS, Calif. – On Dec. 6 the Combat Center will host an exclusive Energy Capability Exercise.

Attendees will join Distinguished Visitors from the military, government, industry and academia to tour battlefield energy efficiency equipment and systems during a break in the annual Steel Knight exercise. They will be briefed on how energy efficiency and alternative energy can make Marine units more agile and lethal.

The three-hour program will include an orientation brief and public remarks by Mr. Joe Bryan, Deputy Assistant Secretary of the Navy (Energy), and Brigadier General William F. Mullen III, Combat Center Commanding General. Mr. Bryan and Brig. Gen. Mullen will also be available to answer media questions.
