

COMBAT CENTER SCHOOL LIAISON

Twenty-nine Palms, California

The Combat Center School Liaison Program helps reduce the impact of the mobile military lifestyle on families with school-aged children by providing parents, students, commanders and schools with resources to assist military families with relocations, life transitions, school transitions and academic success.

The School Liaison facilitates connections between parents, students and educators. The program provides diverse support services to meet the unique needs of military families, including but not limited to:

- Inbound/outbound school transfers
- Information on local schools and boundaries
- Information on school choice programs
- Requirements for kindergarten entry and high school graduation
- Military and community agency referrals
- Information about homeschooling
- Assistance with post-secondary transition
- Before- and after-school programs

The School Liaison also assists families by representing the Combat Center at Morongo Unified School District Board of Trustees meetings.
