April 23, 2020

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

UPCOMING SPRING TRAINING IN JOHNSON VALLEY SHARED USE AREA CANCELLED

MARINE CORPS AIR GROUND COMBAT CENTER TWENTYNINE PALMS, Calif. –

The Marine Corps has cancelled training in the Johnson Valley Shared Use Area previously scheduled for April 30, 2020 through May 11, 2020. The Shared Use Area will remain open to the public during this period.

As a reminder, California is currently under a stay home order until further notice. Certain recreation activities are permissible, as long as social distancing of six feet may be maintained. For current information on the stay home order, including a list of frequently asked questions, please visit <https://covid19.ca.gov/>

The Combat Center is a live-fire training installation, conducting critical training year-round. When recreating near the installation at any time, the public must always be safe and respect base boundaries. Individuals have a personal and legal responsibility to be aware of their location and avoid trespassing.

Upcoming Shared Use Area temporary closures scheduled for 2020 and 2021:

- Oct 30–Nov 09, 2020
- April 30–May 10, 2021
- Oct 29–Nov 08, 2021
